VII National Tournament Quality Cup Presidential Coffee 2021

1. Description

Calani Farm – Peña Micro Lot

Mr. Juan Calani Vargas and his family, migrated from Potosí, province of Chayanta, to the Yungas - Chapare, province of Villa Tunari in Cochabamba the year of 1988.

In the Yungas - Chapare community of San Jose, they found better opportunities in agriculture, mainly in growing vegetables.

The municipality of Villa Tunari, encouraged growing coffee in its community and together with other very well-known producers in the area began this experience, which at first was marked by failures, to then later this small community became known for the excellent quality of coffees. Juan, his wife and 5 children resumed the cultivation of coffee with greater effort and currently own a coffee plantation in its fourth year of production and new plantations in implantation.
