I. Description

Kenia Farm – Kenia Micro Lot

In the central community of Uchumachi Alianza, Roció's family became the pioneers in coffee production, with the launch of the program and the Presidential Coffee Tournament, they searched for a variety with which to compete in quality. This is how they implemented their variety of Pacamara coffee and it was decided to develop the natural process with the first production of their plantation. They named their micro batch “Kenia”, because they consider it to be a very interesting process they want to develop with their coffee in the future and it is also the name of their daughter.
